updates on the insane world of money and power

For the West—A Day of Reckoning Is at Hand

Something in the news today jumped out at me: various and sundry blowback for the shameful opening ceremonies of the Olympics. The world comes to the Olympics to view physical excellence—to watch men/women accomplish the seemingly impossible.

As if it isn't bad enough that men, calling themselves women, are allowed to de-platform women who prepare all their lives to stand on the Olympic podium, the Olympic opening, under a banner of inclusivity/diversity, saw the Olympic Committee (supported by France/City of Paris), take it upon themselves to attack Christians—without cause.

A drag Last Supper featuring an obese, non-binary Jesus—with what appears to be a blue tranny, complete with testicles (as last supper hors-d'oeuvre?), presented for your dining pleasure. As in the blue US, where being white makes one an object of derision, identifying as a Christian is portrayed, front and center, as worthy of mockery.

Whoever was behind the opening Olympic ceremony perpetrated an attack on the 1st Amendment. Anything outside the collective gets purged for essential communism.

To understand the level of degradation here, we need only remind ourselves that it takes only a modicum of sanity to understand how sick Western culture has become. How many regular people go along with this crap? Who takes their little kids to drag shows or allows kids, either knowingly/unknowingly, to be given hormone blockers, which British/Scottish studies show no return to physical normalcy—once put in use.

Awarding gold medal sicko of the century, look beyond the silver medalist, EU, to the overall winner—USA. While the world owns-up to long-term consequences of hormone blockers for kids, in a push towards mindless collectivism, the US, under the watchful, jaundiced eye of Admiral Rachel Levine, persists, purportedly, with continued support for hormone blockers for kids. Pushing our kids towards trans is pervasive in the US.

Just as elites have chosen climate change as the vehicle to lock us down forever, nonbinary trans is an elite chosen tactic—using perversion to divide and conquer us.

Its mission-creep into the Olympics—is beyond despicable. How many of us are trans? Not many and who cares? Outside of an elite mission, why is a sliver of humanity opening the ceremonies for the Olympics? Another Bud-Lite fiasco—they don't get.

Instead they defer/propagandize/they rationalize. They drone on that they do it for equity/equality. Maybe some utterly stupid among them do, but somewhere, at the controls, are evil sons-of-bitches, who, if they can't convert kids to trans, are a freak show.

As a supporter of the republic (and not the democracy), I'm by default a proponent of minority rights—which defines an American. Trans get equal rights/religious zealots get equal rights. Anyone who stays in their own wheelhouse, without a mission/motivation to strip liberty from persons/groups is deserving of equal rights and lawful respect.

Biden (before he was given the bum's rush), prattled on about democracy, anointing VP Harris (who has never won a delegate), as his successor, skirting democracy. To what end—to save democracy? Is any attempt to stop Trump a saving of democracy?

What can we say about a system such as ours—where those not in power are subject to attack? The law be damned—let injustice prevail without political consequences.

Consider the criminal charges/lawsuits brought against Donald Trump. Everyone, including the perpetrators, knows it's a crock—still they do it because they can. No backing-off from charges exposed as lunacy because, it's not about justice/not about ethics. It's only about winning, and whatever needs to be done to win—is what will be done.

Hours after the assassination attempt on the former president, it's as if it never happened. The photo of him rising from the floor with his fist in the air disappeared from Facebook. The news media moved on. But the actions/inactions of the Secret Service remain—and that doesn't go away. Sometimes, the facts come together to shake us down deep. This assassination attempt, intended to give us Haley/Hillary failed badly.

There's time between now and November for the left to wreck havoc. But they are being headed off. Putin and Xi have warned the Biden Bunch that any attempt to back into WW3 will be met decisively. This message, intended for the left, also applies to Trump/Vance who are making noise about attacking Iran. Battle lines are being drawn as the East meets West tit/tat with mutual defense around the Shanghai Cooperation.

Something needs to shift within US politics The Brunson brothers brought a case to the Supreme Court to remove Joseph Biden and other elected officials. The court refused to hear the case. What's the Brunson's message? It doesn't matter who the president is or our leaders are. As long as they keep their oath of office, we'll do fine.

Whoever is sworn in as president next January (likely Trump), that person has to come to terms with reality. The US hegemony has no capability to continue on with policing the world through color revolutions. Our time of empire is winding down and we don't need the horrific consequences of joining Israel in a war with Lebanon/Iran, in a world no longer accepting a US hegemony threatening nations—to toe the US line.

Soon, sanctions, having no basis in reality, will be met head-on by a world, better informed than the US. A world that sees our actions as tyrannically unlawful. Instead of in control, the West will find itself, not compared with somebody else—but compared to itself. In a world taking notice that seizing Russian assets and keeping Russia out of the Olympics is not a matter of law, but one of rules-based order relying on brute force.

International law has begun setting precedent. The ICJ has ruled against Israel—on each count. It no longer matters if you support Zionism—the world no longer supports Zionism. Were the ICG to have power of enforcement, 800,000 Israel settlers in the West Bank would be removed. The Palestinian apartheid state would be dismantled and Israel condemned for its foreign policy. And, for the West—that day is fast coming.

Formidable nations such as Turkey, sit on the sidelines, making threats to enter Israel. Meanwhile, Netanyahu (to standing ovations), tries to convince US idiots to enter a world war, to keep him out of jail. The West is at an inflection point—wake up or die.
