There's Men Going Around Taking Names

Protests against Israel on US college campuses are being used as a political football. Some are quick to judge them as perpetrated by agitators, but are they? When we hear demonstrations are financed by those same persons who funded BLM/ANTIFA, consider that protests against Israeli mass murder, in an election year, hurt Biden/Bibi.

If the protests, like Vietnam, herald young persons having had enough of carnage/ slaughter, at a time when there is no institutional anti-war faction in Congress, this could be the turning point when the people stand-up to the hegemony—the tyrannies.

Defending against a groundswell of young Americans (Westerners), protesting the elite, the US, Ukraine, and Israeli governments have decided to become 'terrorist organizations', deflecting criticism for that mission by accusing their citizens of terrorism.

What is the goal of aforementioned nations? Traitorous intent to remove a few words: Congress shall make no law, the lead-in phrase for what defines an American.

Working backwards, the US Government has formalized a process to turn questioning Americans into terrorists. Purportedly, the US worked with Ukraine, at taxpayer expense, in compiling a long list of 'enemies of Ukraine' which is reportedly a 'kill list'. Is the US complicit in placing the best/brightest Americans who objectively attempt to understand the machinations of US Foreign Policy, as it pertains to Russia/China/ Ukraine/ Israel—on 'kill lists'? Ukraine that cancelled its elections—defining a tyranny?

Worse yet, a newly-founded US—Center For Countering Disinformation, is purposed to charge Americans, deemed to be guilty of 'disinformation/misinformation/malinformation' (inconvenient facts), under the law, as terrorists—to suffer the fate of terrorists.

Any attempt to shut-down free speech is censorship—a shutting-down to be accomplished by elite force, the antithesis of open discussion/debate as set forth in the Bill of Rights. Anytime mis/dis/mal gets uttered by the US government, it is a expression of elite tyranny by constitutional traitors—an attempt to strip American of rights and liberty.

The West, recognizing the situation in Ukraine to be hopeless, has reached fever-pitch insanity, to the point that NATO needs to put 'boots on the ground' before the US elections—to save face they likely will. With 80K UKR troops killed in 2024, most Ukrainians sympathize with young men quitting the country. Less than 50% of Ukrainians support the war, so, either NATO marches or Russia dictates the surrender terms.

Armaments, long-range missiles capable of penetrating deep into Russia (preciously withheld by the West), are now supplied, and, as in Palestine where Biden supplies weapons for whatever Netanyahu has in mind, while asking that Israel keep casualties down, Biden (in a last ditch re-election effort), asks that Russian oil assets not be targeted in 2024—a cause for off the charts oil prices. Sadly, for Joe, no-one is listening.

Back home, the clear and present fear is that the US Government, without concern for the Constitution, pushes ahead, using force, to incarcerate/eliminate Americans. To have any chance of stopping the tyranny, we Americans need to understand our rights.

Before accusing me of launching into another Bill of Rights sermon, let me remind us that our Constitution is the only governance of its kind in existence, and much of the world lives in hope that Americans will step-up to 'shut-down/shut-up'—traitors within.

In 1927, there was furor at the Brandeis Supreme Court in the case of Ruthenberg vs. Michigan, who was charged with attending a secret communist meeting. His conviction would have been upheld, but he died. Chief Justice Brandeis used his already-written dissent as a 1st Amendment defense, which has stood the test of time—since.

This is the doctrine of clear and present danger. A doctrine to remind us that unless there is imminent danger to the nation or a person, 'free speech' shall not be infringed. There is no 'hate speech' in the Constitution/Bill of Rights. If you want to be anti-Semitic, that is your right. What stops anti-Semitism is a better argument—confronting it.

'Hate speech' is for Germany, Ireland, Scotland and sundry tyrannies. Were there open-discussion, Netanyahu would be silenced in shame when he compares peaceful American student protests as being reminiscent of Nazi Germany. Subjected to 'free speech' would make it clear that it is Netanyahu who walks in the shadow of the Nazis. And, if there is a grand perpetrator of global anti-Semitism—it is Benjamin Netanyahu.

The United States, funneling US tax dollars to deranged tyrants, to wage wars that time will relegate to the wrong side of history, is guilty of crimes against humanity. Elites blame growing unrest on anti-Semitism, when, in fact, America is not particularly a racist or anti-Semitic nation. Young Americans are tired of lies and useless slaughter.

Western fiends, rather than admit to being complicit in the murder of 600K UKR, for US interests, now murder their young so as to hold on to power. Israel boasts $100 million to win the US elections. Get your meddling asses out of my country and take that self-styled traitor, Speaker Mike Johnson, with you. Johnson, a scourge on the republic, is taking us back to a Vietnam: 'Love It Or Leave It'. When he speaks of knowing what is best for America, ending free speech, he identifies as a dangerous moron.

Waving UKR flags and throwing another $95 billion in taxpayer debt for wars that cannot be won, while supportive of Bibi's call for the US National Guard to break up the rabble on campuses—what the hell is going on? Has our nation gone out of its mind?

Under Geneva Convention, an invading nation is responsible for welfare of invaded citizens, but Israel refuses to admit Geneva applies to Gaza. Anti-Semitic you say? Jewish student protesters (I'm 1/4 Jew), loath what's done in the name of Zionism.

If you still support Zionism, get your deluded ass over to 'Judging Freedom' with Andrew Napolitano where the best and brightest abide, named on various/sundry kill lists.

All across the US, on greens at universities, intended for 'free speech', rabid cops, some on horseback swinging batons, have no idea of what was Vietnam or Kent State.

How bad off are we? In 2015, Obama, in an oddly rational moment, said it would be a bad idea to suggest that Ukraine could take on Russia. Blikin was there and agreed.
